

INTAGLIO

A unique collection with magnificent and delicate transparencies and relief effect that adds visual strength to the product. Discover our special effects when the light is turned on and off!

INTAGLIO

Intaglio, the family of our embossed materials.

We present here the different patterns of our collections in two options:

- The embossed papers, laminated on white PVC backing support, with relief that adds strength and character to the product. An impressive effect when seen backlit. Here shown in selected colours, but available in the nearly 50 colours of our papers.
- A double side article with our Montblanc collection on the outside and the embossed paper on the inside. The drawing is barely visible from the outside, but discover the effect when the light is switched on and off!
